ARCHAEOLOGICAL INSTITUTE OF AMERICA TOURS

Uxmal

January 18-26, 2025 (9 days | 12 guests)
with Mayanist Jeff Karl Kowalski

Archaeology-focused tours for the curious to the connoisseur.

Archaeological Institute of America
Lecturer & Host

Dr. Jeff Karl Kowalski is an expert on ancient Mesoamerica, with a focus on Maya art and architecture. He is Distinguished Research Professor Emeritus at Northern Illinois University, where he taught from 1982 to 2015, after which he taught selected courses at Temple University. Professor Kowalski has worked for many years in the Maya region, with an emphasis on the majestic site of Uxmal, Yucatán, as well as two seasons spent assisting with work at Copán, Honduras. Uxmal's impressive Nunnery Quadrangle palace group is the focus of his current research. Professor Kowalski has published extensively on the archaeology, art, and epigraphy of the Maya and their Mesoamerican neighbors, including his book The House of the Governor: A Maya Palace of Uxmal, Yucatán, Mexico (U. of Oklahoma Press, 1987), Twin Tollans: Chichén Itzá, Tula, and the Epiclassic to Early Postclassic Mesoamerican World (co-edited with Cynthia Kristan-Graham; Dumbarton Oaks, Harvard U, 2007/2011), and Mesoamerican Architecture as a Cultural Symbol (Oxford U., 1999). For decades he has periodically led study tours of the Maya region, including three departures of this AIA tour of Yucatán since 2016, and he has given many public lectures and presented his research at many conferences.

“What a marvelous trip and experience I had in the Yucatán! Our local guide was wonderful, so was Dr. Jeff K. Kowalski... A great experience of education and excitement!”

Saturday, January 18, 2025: Depart home on flights to Mérida, Mexico

Arrive at Mérida International Airport (MID) and transfer to our hotel. Overnight at the 4-star Villa Mercedes by Hilton for two nights.

Sunday, January 19: Mérida: City tour, The Great Museum of the Maya World, PM at leisure | Welcome dinner

This morning we will take a city tour and then visit Mérida’s anthropology museum, The Great Museum of the Maya World, housing artifacts from many of the sites we shall visit. After lunch and an introductory lecture, the afternoon is at leisure to shop for handicrafts, visit the marketplace, or relax. Gather tonight for a welcome dinner. (B,L,D)

Monday, January 20: Ek Balam | Chichén Itzá | PM at leisure

Depart Mérida for Ek Balam, a small site with spectacular, mythological creatures sculpted in the full round and then hidden 1,200 years ago by the Maya themselves, only to be re-discovered recently by archaeologists. There will be an opportunity to visit the cenote and take a swim. Caves and cenotes (sinkholes with groundwater) were (and are) very important openings to the Maya underworld, as both the abode of the rain gods and places of worship. After lunch, drive to Chichén Itzá and check-in to our hotel for some time at leisure. Overnight at the 3-star Hotel Villas Arqueológicas Chichén Itzá for two nights. (B,L,D)

Tuesday, January 21: Chichén Itzá | PM at leisure

A short drive from our hotel to the site of Chichén Itzá, a UNESCO World Heritage Site, takes us back 1,000 years as we gaze at spectacular 9th-century temples and pyramids. We will see all the site’s highlights, including the Sacred Well, Ballcourt, Castillo, Observatory, High Priest’s Grave, and Nunnery. After lunch you may choose to join us to visit out-of-the-way parts of the site, enjoy time on your own to visit the bookstores and gift shops, or spend a relaxing afternoon on the hotel grounds. (B,L,D)

Wednesday, January 22: Izamal Convent | Kinich Kakmo | Uxmal

Drive to Uxmal, stopping along the way for lunch and to visit Izamal and its Convent. In Izamal, the Spanish conquistadors built their church atop a Maya pyramid. This was the home of the infamous Diego de Landa, who burned all the Maya books that he could gather. Climb to the top of Kinich Kakmo, the largest pyramid (in volume) in all Maya land. Continue on to Uxmal and check-in to our hotel. Overnight at the 5-star Hacienda Uxmal for three nights. (B,L,D)

Thursday, January 23: Uxmal

Uxmal is the capital of the Puuc region, on the western side of the Peninsula—a unique sub-area within the greater Maya zone with its own brand of architecture and mosaic-stone decoration. Uxmal’s “Governor’s Palace” was one of Frank Lloyd Wright’s favorite buildings. Spend a full day exploring this UNESCO World Heritage Site, and there will be an optional light and sound show after dark. (B,L,D)

Labna

Friday, January 24: Labna | Kaxil Kiuic | Uxmal

We spend today in the Puuc region, visiting two sites that are remote and little-visited: Labna, with its famous arch; and Kaxil Kiuic, which was a Maya city of 5,000-8,000 people whose ruins comprise the oldest known settlement in the region. The Puuc area was first settled by the Maya in approximately 500 B.C. and became home to a series of impressive city-states. The Labna-Kiuic Regional Archaeological Project is a joint Mexican-U.S. research program being carried out in the Puuc region under the co-direction of Millsaps College, Mexico's National Institute of Archaeology and History, and Davidson College. In 2013, the AIA bestowed its Best Practices in Site Preservation Award upon project co-director George Bey for his work at Kaxil Kiuic. Return to our hotel in Uxmal for a relaxing evening and dinner. (B,L,D)

Saturday, January 25: Dzibilchaltun | Progreso | Mérida | PM at leisure | Farewell dinner

Depart Uxmal for a visit to Dzibilchaltun, a 2,000-year-old site with a famous astronomical alignment. Highlights include the Temple of the Seven Dolls and a cenote. Enjoy a seafood lunch on the beach in the port city of Progreso, with the sea breeze blowing through the open-air restaurant. Return to Mérida, where we will have some free time to explore independently, do some last-minute shopping, or relax before our farewell dinner. Overnight at the 4-star Villa Mercedes by Hilton. (B,L,D)

Sunday, January 26: Fly home

Transfer to Mérida International Airport (MID) for flights home. (B)

MODERATE: Must be able to walk one to three miles per day on mostly flat, but often uneven, terrain.

What to Expect

You must be able to make long walks, unassisted, over uneven terrain and up and down steps that may be steep and without handrails. Participants who are not able to walk or stand unassisted for extended periods are kindly advised not to join this tour. All participants are expected to be physically active and not be an impediment to others on excursions, to enjoy traveling as part of a group, and to be ready to experience cultural differences. Some sites require strenuous and/or brisk walking or climbing, sometimes with difficult footing. All participants will be required to follow safety/sanitization protocols set forth by Sponsors/Operator, local staff, and host country laws. Any participant showing signs of illness will be asked to wear a mask when in close proximity to others. If the tour manager decides that a participant cannot visit a site safely or in a timely manner, their judgment will be final. Where possible, an alternate activity may be suggested; additional costs may apply. If you have any questions about your ability to participate, we suggest that you visit your personal physician with this brochure in hand and discuss whether or not this program is appropriate for you. Hotels have been chosen for their excellent locations and generous comfort. At the time of year that we visit this region the weather is generally sunny and dry, with temperatures in the mid- to high 80s F during the day and in the mid-60s F at night. There is always a chance of light to moderate rain showers. Complete pre-departure details and what to pack will be sent to participants.

Baggage is entirely at owner's risk. Sponsors/Operator reserve the right to decline to accept or retain any participant at any time. The right is reserved to decline to accept as a participant, or remove from a trip, without refund, any person it judges to be incapable of meeting the rigors and requirements of participating in the activities, or who is abusive to other trip participants, leaders, or third parties, or who is determined to detract from the enjoyment of the trip by others. Specific room assignments are within the sole discretion of the hotel. APPEARING IN PHOTOS: Photos from AIA Tours' trips may be posted on photo-sharing web sites or on social networking sites. Your likeness may appear in some photos or videos, posted either by other travelers or tour lecturers/guides, and the circulation of the materials could be worldwide. The participant affirms that he/she has not received or relied upon any oral representation of Sponsors/Operator as a basis for executing this Release.
