Archaeological Institute of America Lecturer and Host

Ilona Bausch specializes in the prehistoric archaeology and heritage of East Asia, particularly with regard to early trade, social interaction, rituals, and worldview among the prehistoric Jōmon people of Japan. After studying Japanese language and culture at Leiden University (Netherlands), she specialized in Japanese and East Asian archaeology under Kobayashi Tatsuo (Kokugakuin University, Tokyo) and Gina Barnes (Cambridge University, Durham University), receiving her Ph.D. from Durham University (UK) in 2005. Since then, Ilona has lectured at Leiden University and at Tokyo University (Dept. of Cultural Resource Studies, 2014-2017), and is affiliated as associate scholar with LIAS (Leiden Institute of Area Studies) at Leiden University (Netherlands) and the Sainsbury Institute for the Study of Japanese Arts and Cultures (SISJAC) in Norwich, UK. Currently she is teaching as a Visiting Professor for Japanese Art History at the Institute for East Asian Art History at Heidelberg University (Germany). Ilona has published several articles on the role of ritual and adornment in Jōmon society, and is currently preparing a volume on jade. Beyond her interest in how archaeological and historical heritage represents past and present identities in modern society, she is also interested in the diversity of archaeological representation in modern museums, media, politics, and social movements.

Established in A.D. 766 by Shodo Shonin, the first Buddhist monk who introduced Buddhism to Nikko, it is the largest wooden structure in eastern Japan and houses three gilded wooden Buddha statues. Next we visit the early 17th-century Nikko Toshogu Shrine, which consists of more than a dozen buildings decorated with impressive carvings of spiritual animals and Chinese legends symbolizing peace. After lunch, we visit Nikko Tamozawa Imperial Villa Memorial Park, established in 1899 as a retreat for Emperor Taisho. The highlights are two dogū designated as National Treasures: the “Jōmon Venus” from the Middle Jōmon period and the “Masked Goddess” from the Late Jōmon period. On the way to lunch we stop at the Suwa Taisha Shrine, the head of more than 10,000 Suwa Shrines throughout Japan and considered one of the oldest shrines in existence. This afternoon we visit Nagawa’s Obsidian Museum, whose exhibits introduce the 30,000-year-long history of utilizing obsidian mines from the Paleolithic to the Jōmon periods. The Jōmon people discovered obsidian in Japan and found that, when chipped the right way, it made very good arrowheads, knife blades, and other sharp tools. The balance of the day is at leisure to enjoy our resort and have dinner on your own. (B,L)

Wednesday, October 23: Hokuto: Misogi Shrine | Umenoki Site and Jōmon Experiential Programs | Hokuto

This morning we visit Misogi Shrine (the practice of “Misogi” is the purification of body and soul). The shrine, like many, has a stage for performing ceremonial dances, except that this one has a full-scale Noh theater stage floating on a sacred pond of pure water. Enjoy a stroll around the shrine before driving to the Umenoki Site to take part in some Jōmon experiential programs (subject to change). Remains of the Umenoki settlement from the Middle Jōmon period were excavated, and Jōmon pit houses were reconstructed. Join a local expert in learning about Jōmon life while participating in Jōmon-style cooking with a professional chef using gibier (wild game). After the light, Jōmon-style lunch, we will have the opportunity to create small Jōmon pottery or clay plates using techniques from thousands of years ago. Return to our resort for the balance of the day at leisure and dinner on your own. (B,L)

Thursday, October 24: Hokuto City Center for Archaeological Research | Katsunuma City: Winery visit | Fuefuki: Shakado Museum of Jōmon Culture | Fujikawaguchiko

Continue on to a winery in Katsunuma City that is well known for its grape and wine production. Learn from the owner of the winery about the history of Japanese wine, and taste a few of their wines. After lunch, visit the Shakado Museum of Jōmon Culture, which boasts a thousand Jōmon dogū and artifacts excavated from Shakado, where extensive ruins were discovered in the early 1980s during construction of the Chuo Expressway. Arrive at our hotel in Fujikawaguchiko, at the foot of Mt. Fuji, and gather for dinner this evening. Overnight at the 4-star Fuji View Hotel. (B,L,D)

Friday, October 25: Mt. Fuji area: Oishi Park | Itchiku Kubota Art Museum | Oshino Hakkai | Bullet train to Kyoto | Nara

Take a morning tour of the Mt. Fuji area, stopping briefly at Oishi Park, one of the five scenic lakes at the foot of Mt. Fuji and the best place to view Mt. Fuji. Continue on to Itchiku

Kubota Art Museum, a kimono gallery by famous Japanese artist Itchiku Kubota, whose colorful kimonos are highly regarded worldwide. Before departing on the shinkansen bullet train for Kyoto, visit the UNESCO World Heritage Site of Oshino Hakkai, a collection of eight beautiful ponds fed by clear water from Mt. Fuji. During the Edo period, these ponds were a place of pilgrimage where worshippers purified their bodies and souls before climbing Mt. Fuji. Lunch will be an ekiben (bento box) provided aboard the train. After arriving in Kyoto, we transfer to Nara and check-in to our hotel, where the evening and dinner are on your own. Overnight at the 4-star JW Marriott Hotel Nara for two nights. (B,L)

Saturday, October 26: Asuka Village | Nara

Take a day trip to Asuka Village, starting with a visit to the Archaeological Institute of Kashihara, a museum dedicated to exhibiting artifacts from sites in Nara Prefecture, ranging from the Late Stone Age (approx. 40,000 B.C.–10,000 B.C.) to the Muromachi period (A.D. 1336-1573). Also visit the Center for Preservation of the Kitora Tumulus Mural Paintings, where mural paintings and artifacts from the 7th/8th-century Kitora Tumulus are preserved. The murals from the tomb's ceiling were of ancient Chinese-style astronomical charts and have been designated National Treasures. This museum illustrates the history of the excavation and preservation techniques. Continue on to a visit to Ishibutai Kofun, a tumulus from the late Kofun period (A.D. 300 to 538), formed by 30 massive stones weighing approximately 2,300 tons. Our last stop of the day is at the small Asukadera Temple, one of the oldest Buddhist temples in Japan. Enjoy dinner in Asuka Village before returning to Nara. (B,L,D)

Sunday, October 27: Nara: Nara Palace Site Historical Park, Nara Park, Todaiji Temple, National Museum | Kyoto

Begin this morning visiting Nara Palace Site Historical Park, where Japan's first capital was located in the 8th century; and Nara Park, where more than 1,200 freely roaming deer are believed to be messengers of the gods. While in the park we visit the UNESCO World Heritage Site of Todaiji Temple, where we see one of Japan's largest bronze statues of Buddha (Daibutsu). The temple is one of Japan's most famous and historically significant temples. Continue on to Nara National Museum, the second oldest museum in Japan, with collections of Buddhist art. Its main room houses statues that are designated National Treasures. Drive to our hotel in Kyoto where we check-in, get settled, and enjoy dinner independently. Overnight at the 5-star Hotel Okura Kyoto for three nights. (B,L)

Monday, October 28: Kyoto area: Tenryuji Temple, Optional rickshaw ride & Shojin ryori lunch, Kinkakuji Temple, Private tea ceremony, Dinner with geisha/maiko performance

Today is spent on the western outskirts of Kyoto, in the Arashiyama district, beginning with a visit to the UNESCO World Heritage Site of Tenryuji Temple. First established in 1339 by Shogun Ashikaga, it is ranked first among Kyoto's five important Zen temples. It has suffered eight major fires, and has been rebuilt and restored along the way. Either enjoy the balance of the morning at leisure in Arashiyama, exploring independently and having lunch on your own; or experience

For more than a century the AIA has been dedicated to the encouragement and support of archaeological research and publication, and to the protection of the world's archaeological resources and cultural heritage. By traveling on an AIA Tour you directly support the AIA while personally gaining the benefit of the AIA's network of scholars and worldwide contacts.

Bamboo grove by rickshaw (Arashiyama, Kyoto)

an optional rickshaw ride and shojin ryori lunch (additional cost). On the rickshaw ride, explore the highlights of Arashiyama, its major bamboo grove, and serene backroads. Your shojin ryori lunch, prepared by a monk in the Tenryuji Temple, is the traditional vegan cuisine of Buddhist monks in Japan.

This afternoon we gather and drive to northern Kyoto to visit Kinkakuji Temple (“Golden Pavilion”), Kyoto’s iconic landmark and one of the most gorgeous temples in Japan. The gold-leaf-adorned pagoda was built to house sacred relics of the Buddha, and in the 14th century the complex included the retirement villa for shogun Yoshimitsue Ashikaga, which was converted to a Zen temple after his death. Also experience a private tea ceremony in a traditional tea room. Enjoy a bowl of matcha powdered green tea with Japanese sweets carefully prepared by the tea master. This evening, while we enjoy dinner, a geisha (traditional, female, Japanese performing artist/entertainer) and a maiko (apprentice geisha) will join us to talk, perform a traditional dance, and play games. Questions about their lives are welcomed, and our guide will assist us in communicating with them. (B,D)

Tuesday, October 29: Kyoto: Kiyomizu-dera Temple, Ginkakuji Temple, Murin-an Garden Villa, Nijo-jo Castle | Farewell dinner

Begin the day visiting Kiyomizu-dera Temple, a UNESCO World Heritage Site founded in A.D. 778 and one of the most celebrated temples in Japan. It is dedicated to Kannon, a deity of mercy and compassion and, as it is located on the steep slope of Mt. Otowa, it offers one of the most dramatic views of Kyoto’s cityscape amid autumn colors. Next, we make our way to the 15th-century Jishoji Temple, which has been more commonly known as Ginkakuji Temple (“Silver Pavilion”) since the Edo period. Make a visit to the 19th-century Murin-an Garden Villa, whose garden is a modern Japanese masterpiece. Our final stop of the day is at the early 17th-century Nijo-jo Castle, a former imperial villa that was the Kyoto residence of generations of Shogun until 1867. Return to our hotel to freshen up before we gather for a farewell dinner of kaiseki, Japanese haute cuisine. (B,L,D)

Any physical or mental condition that may require special medical attention or physical assistance must be reported in writing when you make your reservation. Participants must be able to embark or disembark transportation vehicles, stand for extended periods, climb stairs, and step over raised thresholds all without assistance. All participants will be required to follow safety/sanitization protocols set forth by Sponsors/Operator, local staff, and host country laws, and any participant who refuses to follow protocols may be asked to leave the program with no refunds provided. REFUNDS: Prices quoted are based on group participation. No refunds will be made for any part of the program in which a participant chooses not to participate. Refunds cannot be made to participants who do not complete the tour for any reason, nor to participants whose entry into any country or aboard any transportation vehicle, including airplanes and cruise ships, is delayed or denied. TOUR CANCELLATIONS AND REFUNDS: Sponsors/Operator reserve the right to cancel this tour prior to departure, in which case payment will be refunded without further obligation on our part unless trip cancellation, itinerary changes, and/or delays are mandated by causes beyond our control, in which case the participant shall have the option of accepting in lieu of the original tour such rescheduled tour or other substituted tour(s) as may be offered by Sponsors/Operator, or else receiving a refund of as much of such advance tour expenditures as Sponsors/Operator are able to recover on the participant's behalf from carriers, third-party tour vendors, etc. Sponsors/Operator, however, shall not have any obligation or liability to the participant beyond the foregoing. TRIP INSURANCE: Sponsors/Operator strongly recommend that participants purchase trip cancellation insurance. In the event that you must cancel your participation, trip cancellation insurance may be the only source of reimbursement. Trip cancellation insurance is available through Sponsors/Operator and others and covers certain expenses in conjunction with cancellation due to illness or accident and damaged or lost luggage. Sponsors/Operator will send participants an application upon receipt of their reservation. PRICES: Prices quoted are based on fares in effect at the time of publication and are subject to changes at any time. On all programs, even after full payment, Sponsors/Operator reserve the right to increase the tour price in the event of cost increases due to changes in supplier costs, tax increases, currency fluctuations, or fuel and energy surcharges, and all such increases are to be paid to Sponsors/Operator upon notice to the participant. FORUM AND METHODOLOGY FOR DISPUTE RESOLUTION: Any dispute or claim which refers or relates to this contract, any literature related to the trip, or the trip itself shall be litigated solely and exclusively in and for courts in Keene, New Hampshire, subject to substantive and procedural New Hampshire law, and for this limited purpose, the parties agree to exclusive venue and personal jurisdiction therein. At the participant's option, however, in lieu of litigation, Sponsors/Operator will agree to binding arbitration in Keene, New Hampshire, subject to substantive, but not procedural, New Hampshire law, pursuant to the then existing commercial rules of the American Arbitration Association. In any such arbitration, the arbitrator, and not any federal, state, or local court or agency, shall have exclusive authority to resolve any dispute relating to the interpretation, applicability, enforceability, conscionability, or formation of this contract, including but not limited to any claim that all or any part of this contract is void or voidable. U.S. STATE DEPARTMENT & CENTERS FOR DISEASE CONTROL: Both the Centers for Disease Control and U.S. State Department publish and update important country-specific information for travelers. Participants understand and agree to hold Sponsors/Operator, their officers, vendors and suppliers harmless and not liable for any real or perceived symptoms of any disease, virus, illness, or condition, nor for exacerbating any existing symptoms of any illness, virus, disease or condition, quarantine requirements, disability, and other short-term and long-term health effects, including death. MISCELLANEOUS: Participants should not purchase airline tickets prior to receiving their final payment invoice so as to avoid airline cancellation penalties if a tour is canceled or otherwise modified subsequent to the participant's purchase of those tickets. Baggage and personal effects are at all times the sole responsibility of the participant. If, due to weather, flight schedules, or other uncontrollable factors, you are required to spend (an) additional night(s), you will be responsible for your own hotel, transfers, and meal costs. Baggage is entirely at owner's risk. Sponsors/Operator reserve the right to decline to accept or retain any participant at any time. The right is reserved to decline to accept as a participant, or remove from a trip, without refund, any person it judges to be incapable of meeting the rigors and requirements of participating in the activities, or who is abusive to other trip participants, leaders, or third parties, or who is determined to detract from the enjoyment of the trip by others. Specific room assignments are within the sole discretion of the hotel. APPEARING IN PHOTOS: Photos from AIA Tours' trips may be posted on photo-sharing web sites or on social networking sites.
