

Syracuse University Crown Point Archaeological Field-School 2025

MAYMESTER ANT-443 (6 credits)

Experiential Learning; Liberal Arts & Anthropology elective credits

DATES: Arrive on Thursday, May 8th Depart on Thursday, May 22nd (transportation to & from Syracuse University main campus included)

ACCOMODATIONS: Participants will camp at the Crown Point Reservation campground. Basic camp facilities (showers, bathrooms) available. Campsite fees & camp food are included. Participants are expected to bring their own tents (let us know ASAP if this is a problem).

SCHEDULE: Workday from 7am until 2pm, Monday-Saturday; afternoon programs in archaeology, local history, & public interpretation. Sunday excursions to other local historical sites.

APPLICATION: For information contact Professor Christopher DeCorse (crdecors@syr.edu) or Matthew O'Leary (molear03@syr.edu).

This is a six-credit course, non-SU students are welcome to enroll via online registration.

COME CAMP WITH US!

Study life on the 18th century frontier and the impacts of 20th century archaeology on heritage-sites. Admission is open to non-major students with an interest in history, policy, or other related fields.

Crown Point State Historic Site, the “last great unexcavated military site in North America,” sits within the Adirondack State Forest and includes two imposing colonial fortifications – French Fort St. Frédéric and Britain’s His Majesty's Fort at Crown Point.

This field-school is in cooperation with New York State Office of Parks, Recreation, & Historic Preservation and provides a unique opportunity to work at an active historic site.

Additional points of interest include the celebration of the 250th anniversary of the capture of Crown Point & Ft. Ticonderoga by Revolutionary forces, including 18th century civil and military reenactment.

