

ANTH 419: Training in Archaeological Field Work KU Archaeology Field School

Scholarships available to cover all tuition and fees

Course:
May 19th - June 6th
Field Days:
May 19th - May 30th
Virtual:
June 2nd - June 6th

Applications
due March 1st

3-credit
hour

Join us at this exciting site to investigate the homestead of the Bloody Benders, Kansas's first serial killer family. Learn and practice the skills necessary for archaeological fieldwork in research or commercial settings

Hotel and transportation
included

No prior knowledge
required

Near Independence,
Kansas

Student lab position available in 2025-2026

See webpage for more details

If interested, contact
Dr. Lauren Norman (lauren_norman@ku.edu)
Dr. Blair Schneider (blair.schneider@ku.edu)